ELETTRICITÀ
FUTURA
imprese elettriche italiane

Elettricità Futura is the Italian leading association representing the electricity industry. It represents and stands up for the companies interests in Italy and in Europe. Elettricità Futura was established in April 2017 as the merge of Assoelettrica, Italian association of electricity companies and assoRinnovabili, Italian association of renewable energy producers

The President of Elettricità Futura

Simone Mori

Elettricità Futura in figures ...

1,150,000 km of distribution grid

75,000 MW of conventional and renewable power plants

40,000 Workers

600 Members:

- Power Producers
- Distributors
- Electricity wholesalers
- Service Providers

Of renewable and conventional sources

Elettricità Futura represents 70% of electricity consumption in Italy

Elettricità Futura engages in the institutional debate to stand up for its members interests. It contributes to the international debate also through membership in international sector based organizations

Parliament, Government, European Institutions, Regulatory Authorities, Industry operators (TSO), Territorial Institutions, NGO, Association, Media, Technical Committees

Elettricità Futura provides services to the membership through publications, updates on the electricity policies, internationalisation activity, meeting with institutions, training and education, agreements, economic facilitations on specific services

Conventions, workshops and public hearings, market and legislation updates, statistical data and sector reports, releases, agreements

Elettricità Futura is signatory of the national collective contract of employment for the electricity sector

Our mission

- Active and aware management of own energy needs
- Energy efficiency as main resource for Italy
- More renewable, sustainable and efficient technologies
- Smart grids for consumers and market
- A competitive electricity market open to new technologies
- Electricity as the main tool for decarbonisation
- Electricity to reduce energy consumption and improve life quality
- Diffusion of electricity vehicles in urban areas
- Health and Safety for workers and respect of Environment

Target 2030

55%

Renewables sources on final consumption of electricity

25%

Electricity penetration on final energy consumption

With Elettricità Futura to...

Be at the forefront of the italian and international energy debate

Follow policy updates and the evolution of energy scenarios

Meet the actors of the electricity industry

Be part of the main electricity association in Italy, which represents the whole electricity supply chain

Elettricità Futura is member of Confindustria, the association representing manufacturing and service companies in Italy

Find the benefits to be part of Elettricità Futura
Visit our website www.elettricitafutura.it
Send an email to adesioni@elettricitafutura.it

ROMA Piazza Alessandria, 24, 00198
MILANO Via G.B. Pergolesi, 27, 20124

Tel. +39 06 8537281

info@elettricitafutura.it